NEW Seasonal Beer is here!

Leinenkugel's Nut Brown Ale
Now on Tap! and
Summit Winter Ale in bottles.

Leinenkugel's Nut Brown Ale is the new seasonal beer harkens to a time when multiple generations of the Leinenkugel family would gather with friends and enjoy a special brew crafted especially for the Holiday season.

English two-row malts give this lager a maple aroma and pronounced chocolate, caramel and hazelnut top notes that dance around the palate before finishing gracefully. Get the whole story here: <http://beeradvocate.com/forum/read/1589652>

Summit Winter is a unique beer that has its origins in British neighborhood pubs where villagers gathered to shake off the damp chill of the English winter. It has a robust, full-bodied flavor with a dark rich chocolate color. (and at 6.2% alcohol by volume is not for the weak ) also, owner John's personal favorite!
